faith in ACTION: the Micah 6:8 Challenge

"what does the Lord require of you?"

It's a simple question really; the answer, however, is less so if we talk our faith seriously. The question, asked by God, challenges us to live a life of faith – a faith in action – that goes beyond mere attendance or even prayer and belief: it is a question that God Himself answers revealing the full extent of His expectations. So, what exactly is God asking for? In short: God doesn't want piety, lip-service, or showy sacrifices; God wants nothing less than everything – a total life commitment to do His will.

Join us for an challenging preaching series as we examine how we can respond to God's challenge through compassion and service.

Sunday, June 5, 2011, after the service,

Join us for a celebration luncheon:
Come and share how you started making a difference
as God worked in and through you.

This May and June, roll up your sleeves and join us as we put our faith into action. Each Sunday we will learn what God expects of us – that we are to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God – and how, by living up to this challenge we will move beyond the walls of our Church to love and serve God through our loving and serving our neighbours. James – and Jesus – tell us that our faith must be expressed not with words but through actions: actions that, when combined, will bring about the kingdom of God. The Micah 6:8 challenge calls us to show the world that we live by radically different standards – by God's standards – and what better way to do this than by serving the communities in which we live!
