This Week's Music

Thank you to our Choral Scholars for being the quartet in the Introit. Don Besig and Nancy Price are a highly acclaimed American composing team that has collaborated on over 300-400 choral compositions and arrangements for school and church choirs since 1980. Known for their accessible, melodic, and spiritually focused anthems, their work is popular in the music industry, with over 18 million copies sold. And for the curious, Saint Muiredach mac Echdach, also known as Murtagh, was the founding Bishop of Killala, Ireland in the 6th century. He is described as an old man of Patrick's family, and was placed at the head of the Church of Killala by St. Patrick.
