

Kirk News

Welcome!

We would like to welcome you to our service today. We are happy to have you and we hope that you will find our worship engaging and our community welcoming. We hope to see you again in the coming weeks.

Large Print Bulletins

Large print bulletins are available at the main doors.

Nursery

Nursery is not provided for the summer but please feel free to use the Parlour as an area for your baby's needs.

Fellowship Time

Please join us following the morning service for fellowship time outside on the lawn, weather permitting, with David and Constance Robinson as your hosts.

This Week's Music

We are so happy that Melissa Lewis is able to join us in this service! Stabat Mater by Pergolesi is a work for soprano and alto solos and duets, with strings. It is considered Pergolesi's finest work. Melissa is singing number 4 in this work. The text describes the sorrow and pain of Mary as she watches the suffering of her dying son. "O rest in the Lord" is from the oratorio Elijah.

Thank you

We would like to say thank you to Rev. Dr. Dale Woods for speaking today. We are happy to have him here!

Congratulations

We extend congratulations to Linden and Zach Graham, who welcomed their firstborn, Theo Basil, on July 19. Delighted grandparents are Constance and David Robinson.

Condolences

We would like to give our deepest sympathies to Kathy Darte, Eileen MacKinnon and families on the passing of their nephew Jason MacKinnon. Our thoughts and prayers are with them all.

Pastoral Care

If any pastoral care concerns arise please call Rev. Amanda Henderson-Bolton at 902-894-5382.

Ceilidh Fall Fair Reminder

It may be mid-summer, but it's not too early to be thinking about the Fall Fair on Saturday, October 31st. When canning or preserving, we encourage you to set some aside for the sale. Also, if you have ideas about products or services, or new approaches to our Fall Fair, please speak to any Session member.

PCC Mission Moment

Conflict can continue to destabilize lives, even after the fighting ends. After the Tigray peace agreement in Ethiopia, communities felt relief from violence, but many families still struggle. The two-year conflict caused food shortages. Ato, a farmer, lost all his household assets in the war, and his family ate once daily. Things changed when Ato's family participated in an agriculture and livelihoods program where he received training, seeds, goats and hand tools. Equipped with new knowledge and supplies, Ato was able to resume his work. Now he is growing healthy food for his household. The family's two goats had four kids, one of which the family sold to cover financial gaps. This program was supported by PWS&D and Canadian Foodgrains Bank, in collaboration with Tearfund.
