

PCC Mission Moment

With support from Presbyterians Sharing, St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Eckville, Alberta, has been a dedicated contributor to the Canada Foodgrains Bank for more than 35 years. What began as a small growing project on donated land has expanded into a community-wide effort, with local farmers, families, and town leaders working together to plant, grow, and harvest grain. Through their commitment and generosity, the congregation helps provide food assistance to people facing hunger during crises such as conflict, drought, and natural disasters. Their growing project is a powerful example of faith in action and community partnership.

Spotlight on Indigenous Ministries in the Presbyterian Church in Canada Anamiewigummig Fellowship Centre – Kenora, ON Anamiewigummig Fellowship Centre exists to clothe, help, feed, love, and guide people in urban Kenora, Ontario. To sum up the fulfillment of this mission, one long-term client said of the Fellowship Centre, "I like the way you guys take care of us." The ministry provides an urban "home" for many elders and young people who have endured the realities of the Residential School system or have aged out of the child welfare system. Offering practical care and support with food, clothing, and love, the Center journeys alongside Indigenous people who have been displaced or ravaged by addiction and mental health issues.
